

Family Virtues Newsletter

This weeks Virtue:

Responsibility

Being responsible means others can trust you to do things with excellence. You accept accountability for your actions. When you make a mistake, you offer amends instead of excuses. Responsibility is the ability to respond ably and to make smart choices.

Things a family can do to practice Responsibility ...

- Take your agreements seriously
- Respond ably by doing things to the best of your ability
- Be willing to do your part
- Admit mistakes without making excuses
- Be ready and willing to clear up misunderstandings
- Give your best to whatever you do

The townfolks ring the bell of Atri (played by Alexis) when there has been injustice. Jamie, the mayor, helps bring justice to Steele by having his friend live up to his responsibilities.

While the King daydreams, not fulfilling his responsibilities, the unattended fire, Jamie, burns the cakes, Avery and Alexis.
