

Family Virtues Newsletter

This weeks Virtue:

Perseverance

Perseverance is being steadfast and persistent. You commit to your goals and overcome obstacles, no matter how long it takes. When you persevere, you don't give up...you keep going. Like a strong ship in a storm, you don't become battered or blown off course. You just ride the waves.

Things a family can do to practice Perseverance ...

- Choose your commitments wisely
- Set goals and stick with them until completed
- Pace yourself, and take one step at a time
- Don't let doubts or tests blow you off course
- Stand by your friends and loved ones

Using the spaghetti and marshmallows, the two teams showed perseverance as they created their tall towers.

The students earned a piece of spaghetti and a marshmallow each time they answered a question defining a virtue.

Next virtue Creativity
